The Post Office was built in 1962 and it is very old now. There were other ones in lots of different stores in Isle La Motte. In the old days, there was a store across the street from the Hotel next to the Post Office, that had a Post Office in it. In 229 years so far, there have been 20 postmasters. A postmaster can be a girl or a boy in charge of the Post Office. One postmaster, a boy, ran the Isle La Motte Post Office for 29 years. It was for a very long time! His name was Arthur Carson. The Post Office was in the village of Isle La Motte at the old Carson Store. Now it is the Crème Store.

The Post Office is special because there is only one in town. You can get stamps at the Post Office in Isle La Motte. You can mail letters and packages there. And you can get packages and letters back! The trucks help deliver mail so you can get mail. We can visit Phyllis there a lot too. It is important to have a Post Office in town so you can get mail.
