

The Samuel de Champlain Statue

Contact information: West Shore of Isle La Motte Vermont near St.Anne's Shrine. The statue is in the open and visible dawn to dusk. The town of Isle La Motte owns this statue.

The Samuel de Champlain statue is located on the West Shore road of Isle La Motte near St.Anne's Shrine the statue is heavy and weighs 35 tons. The statue is made from solid granite. The sculptor was a Vermont Ferdinand L. Webar donated from Barre Granite.

The statue is in front of St. Anne's Shrine. Which may be the most popular place to visit on Isle La Motte. The unveiling was July 7, 1968 when 1,200 people attended the ceremony.